Last Week

I hope everyone enjoyed their bank holiday Monday last week. In our 4 days of school KS2 jumped in French with 2 lessons learning about French foods. In English, the children wrote setting descriptions linked to the book 'Leaf'. In geography, KS1 learnt about how the weather differs between polar and equatorial regions while KS2 used atlases to locate key rivers on maps. In music, we had great fun singing 'Livin' on a prayer' and playing our different parts on untuned percussion, glockenspiels and recorder.

Updates

Staffing update

I am sad to tell you that Mrs Jobson will be leaving us on Friday 5th of June as she has a new full-time position. We will miss Mrs Jobson and all of her brilliant work while she has been at Membury. We have appointed Mrs Farmer as our new administrator who will be joining us for a handover period from Monday 18th May.

Fundraising

Looking ahead to being about to offer the pantomime and other trips at a reasonable cost next year, we will need to fundraise support this. If you have any ideas or could support in fundraising, please contact me.

RSHE

Next half-term we will be teaching our RSHE sessions. A letter accompanies the newsletter with more details.
