Issue 21

This Week

This week we have started our new units of learning. In English, we are writing narratives to entertain. We will share these next week with you! In history, KS1 are learning about nurturing nurses and significant people and KS2 are learning about Ancient Greece. In art, KS1 have started learning about colour mixing while KS2 have created a word portrait of themselves and prepared a background for their multimedia portrait. EYFS have been reading Superkid and Supertato and talking about real-life super heroes.

Updates

World Book Day – Children may come to school dress as their favourite book character or in pyjamas for cosy reading. Please send in some blankets suitable for indoor den building and you child's favourite book (with name in) to read and share together.

Science afternoon – We would like to invite parents/carers into school at 3pm to take part in a science activity with your children.

Do you have a CD player you no longer need? Any donations welcome along with any CDs classical/calming music. We are also looking for a few different sized rolling pins and a metal colander.

Attached to the newsletter are information sheets about the SEND White Paper and reforms which was released this week
